 - (i) A written report detailing the specific amendments shall be presented at a meeting of the Executive, and the report shall be included in the minutes of the meeting;
 - (ii) Following the meeting, there shall be a minimum five (5) days and maximum fourteen (14) days reflection period during which the proposed amendments shall be publicly available;
 - (iii) Following the reflection period, a meeting of the Executive shall be held, and the proposed amendments will be voted on.
2. The date of the most recent ratification of this document shall be included at the beginning of this document.
3. All previously ratified versions of this document shall be made available upon request.

Article XV Sub-Association Registration

1. Pursuant to the provisions outlined in the UOSU Clubs Code, the Association is empowered to bestow Sub-Association status upon associations in relation to its own constitutional guidelines.
2. Subject to the fulfillment of requisite formalities, Sub-Association status may be conferred upon any association upon the satisfactory execution of a valid Club Registration Form (Annex A) and Club Contract Form (Annex B), duly endorsed by the President and the VP Academic, in conjunction with two designated signing officers representing the prospective Sub-Association.

Annex A - Computer Science Students Association Club Registration Form

This Agreement hereby serves as formal acknowledgement of the conferral of the status of 'Association' upon the undersigned organization ("Club") by the Computer Science Students Association ("CSSA"). This recognition is in accordance with and as stipulated by the University of Ottawa Students' Union's (UOSU) Clubs Code.

This Agreement is subject to the Club providing a complete list of its members ("Member List"), a representative visual identifier ("Display Image") and a 250-word maximum description of the Association in both French and English ("Description and Mission Statement") that shall be attached as annexures to this Agreement. The absence of these annexures will render this Agreement void and of no effect.

Additionally, the Club is obligated to duly execute a Club Contract Form as stipulated by the CSSA. The absence of a signed Club Contract Form shall render this Agreement null and void.

By signing this Agreement, the Club acknowledges and consents to the aforementioned terms and conditions. The Club also warrants that it has the authority to commit to these obligations and will be held responsible for any breaches thereof.

In witness whereof, the Club, through its authorized representative, executes this Agreement as of the date first below written.

Annex B - Computer Science Students Association Club Contract Form

This Agreement ("Agreement") outlines the roles and responsibilities between the Computer Science Students Association ("CSSA") and _____ ("Club").

The Club shall adhere to the principles, values, and vision of the CSSA in all its activities and public representations. Any deviation from this commitment can be deemed a breach of this Agreement.

At least one executive member of the CSSA ("CSSA Executive") must be appointed to a CSSA Representative position within the Club.

The CSSA commits to providing financial support to the Club in an amount to be determined at the CSSA's discretion, ranging from a minimum of $_____ to a maximum of $_____ dollars (CAD) per term cycle (May through April). This financial support may be provided via reimbursement of Club expenses or direct deposit to the Club's bank account. Should the Club's events be canceled or not meet the CSSA's quality standards, the CSSA reserves the right to revoke this funding. Additionally, the CSSA VP Finance shall have full access to view the Club's budget at all times.

The Club is obligated to deliver an annual presentation or report to the CSSA either during the Summer Term or prior to the Fall Term's reading week. This should outline the Club's planned activities for the year and provide a detailed roadmap for how these plans will be implemented.

Either the CSSA or the Club may choose to terminate this Agreement at their discretion. However, any intention to terminate this Agreement must be communicated during a Summer Term. The termination shall take effect 14 days from its communication.

By signing this Agreement, the undersigned acknowledge and agree to these terms. Failure to comply with these terms may result in termination of this Agreement and associated benefits.
